

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	vii
Philosophical Introduction and Prologue — Don't ask why, just do it!	1
Chronology of the American Sixties	27
Spring 1964 — Beatlemania!	59
Summer 1964 — Finding our feet in the Great Society	69
Fall 1964 — Don't trust anyone over thirty!	81
Spring 1965 — Not by any means, but by any means necessary	97
Summer 1965 — Help!	111
Fall 1965 — Turn! Turn! Turn!	125
Spring 1966 — Anyone who thinks that individuality means being different need not apply	145
Summer 1966 — It can't happen here!	165
Fall 1966 — For what it's worth ...	183
Spring 1967 — Turn on! Tune in! Drop out!	199
Summer 1967 — All you need is love!	221
Fall 1967 — Music = Truth	243
Spring 1968 — I feel free!	263
Summer 1968 — The whole world's watching!	289
Fall 1968 — Look for the best! Expect the worst! Take what you get!	319
Spring 1969 — Hey, Dick!	345
Summer 1969 — Give peace a chance!	371
Fall 1969 — Bring all the G.I.s home now!	389
Spring 1970 — We ain't gonna party no more!	417
Summer 1970 — Wake up, niggers!	437
Fall 1970 — Power to the people!	455
Epilogue — Them hippies was right!	469
Bibliography	491
Index	505